

BLUE FIRE MOLDS

Creative Ceramics and Glass

Blue Fire Molds is a company dedicated to providing quality slumping molds for the glass professional and hobbyist. We have been in the ceramics industry for over 30 years and have been dedicated to providing fine quality ceramic products for many needs. Our expert staff will assist you with any questions concerning the glass and mold industry.

Blue Fire Molds has a large inventory of glass molds for your use, including common and many unique shapes for a variety of uses. Many of our molds have sidewalls for ease of use and when appropriate have side holes to help in the distribution of heat while the glass is being slumped in the kiln.

You may order our molds by phone, fax, and via our website. If any questions arise please call our staff. We endeavor to ship all orders the same day as received and ship worldwide.

Blue Fire Molds offers gift certificates for that special person on any occasion. The gift certificate is available in any amount and will be mailed to you.
